

LEARN-TO-READ

Subject - English

Activity

1. Students will be able to read and write a summary about what they read.
2. Students will be able to demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.

Instructions: (What will the students do?)

1. Give students to read stories, and they write a summary about what they read.
2. The teacher will write what was discussed about the parts of speech.
3. Give students to complete writing stories of their books and their own stories.
4. Give students to demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.

Assessment

1. Students will be able to read and write a summary about what they read.
2. Students will be able to demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.

Instructions: (What will the students do?)

1. Give students to read stories, and they write a summary about what they read.
2. The teacher will write what was discussed about the parts of speech.
3. Give students to complete writing stories of their books.
4. Give students to write stories and demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.

Assessment: (What will the students do?)

Instructions

1. Give students to read stories, and they write a summary about what they read.
2. Students will be able to read and write a summary about what they read.
3. Students will be able to demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.

Instructions: (What will the students do?)

1. Give students to read stories, and they write a summary about what they read.
2. The teacher will write what was discussed about the parts of speech.
3. Give students to write their own stories, and demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.

Assessment: (What will the students do?)

Instructions

1. Students will be able to read and write a summary about what they read.
2. Students will be able to demonstrate how to use the parts of speech by writing a book.