

PLANT ANATOMY - Vocabulary

bud - a leaf or flower that is just beginning to grow.

flower - the reproductive part of the plant.

leaf - flat, green growth that converts sunlight energy into food for the plant.

stem - the main stalk and support of the plant.

root - the part of the plant that is underground. It supports the plant and brings food and water into the plant from the soil.