

Directions: People need certain things in order to survive and live a healthy and productive life. People also sometimes want things are entertaining, special, and elegant.

Think about the things in your life that are needed. What would you do if suddenly these things were not available? How would ensure you had these Needs, and how important would the Wants now be?

Things in my life that I need:

What I would do if I lost these needs:

What wants can I live without?