

Yes	No	No	Yes
None, 100, 100, 100			None

Module level 1 – After Test 1

Thought reflection

- 1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
 - 1.1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
 - 1.1.1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
- 2. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
 - 2.1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
- 3. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
 - 3.1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
- 4. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
 - 4.1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
- 5. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.
 - 5.1. Maria, who was awarded a medal of Honour for her work with women, was known for teaching and talking with women of color who had been abused in their homes. She said she felt that she was not equal to the men in the organization.

10. Critical Reflection (to complete activities 10.1-10.5)

1. How does Maria's behavior as a reflective practitioner?
2. What do young people understand about her work?
3. What do young people understand about her work with women?
4. What do young people understand about her work with women?
5. What do young people understand about her work with women?