

GRAMMAR AND GRAMMAR COLLEGE

A. Underline all the coordinate conjunctions in the following sentences.

1. James and John sat in the car.
2. He is great but with considerable ability.
3. Is this yours or mine?
4. The children were fond of reading, but books were scarce.
5. I started at 40, but I am 45.
6. She is short but very smart.
7. He should wear a lot of hats, not necessarily every day.
8. Mother is a nice person and a good cook.
9. We finished up and then.
10. John or Mary was the best boy in the class.

B. Circle all the correlative conjunctions in the following sentences.

1. Either Mary or Marianne seemed to like it.
2. Neither the teacher nor the students enjoyed it.
3. Was either Tom or Jim at the party?
4. Either the president of the club or going to get a job.
5. Neither James nor John came for sports.
6. Margaret Franklin was not only a distinguished scholar but a poet.