Adjective Recognition Practice

Exercise Directions: Underline the adjectives in the following sentences. The number in parenthesis behind the sentence is the number of adjectives in the sentence. Some sentences do not have a number in parenthesis, so you'll have to find all the adjectives on your own. Remember that "a, an, the" are adjectives, known as articles. Include them in your list of adjectives.

The tall girl in the red suit became a model for the fashion show. (6)

Did your best friend tell you about the latest news? (4)

There were five gifts under the Christmas tree. (3)

Jean brought many presents for her teachers at the middle school. (4)

The newest CD was at the top of the music charts for ten weeks. (6)

Pat is taller than his sister. (2)

Today is the first day of the fair at our local church.

Buy some tickets for the amusement park rides, Joan.

The flowers sent to her mother were beautiful.

The path to success is not always easy.

Adverb Recognition Practice

Definition: An adverb is a word that modifies a verb, an adjective or another adverb. An adverb answers the questions: When? Where? How? To what extent or degree?

Practice Exercise: In the exercise to follow, write down the adverb(s) in each sentence and what question the adverb answers. There may be more than one adverb in a sentence, so be careful.

1. The heavy rain ceased very suddenly.
2. Courageously, Billy faced the many questions of the judge.
3. The snow fell softly and silently.
4. Joe was recently promoted to the top manager's position.
5. Bonnie went outside and collected the mail from the street box.
6. When you came, I was away.
7. Robert carefully wrote his note to the teacher.
8. Yesterday, Paul went downtown on the bus.
9. The decorations on either side of the door were very beautiful.
10. The boys jumped much higher than their competitors in the tryouts.
