

Main Idea

Read the paragraph and then select the main idea for the paragraph.

1. The flag sat on the pole at the park. The sun shined. It's quiet with no other people and a beautiful view. The flag waved and he walked up. That the flag was set again, he walked to the building.

The main idea of the paragraph is

- A. The flag waved.
- B. The sun shined.
- C. The flag set again.
- D. The flag was set.

2. Two students decided to look for insects. They went to the school garden. They found many insects. They were very interested. They were very happy. They were very excited. They were very interested. They were very happy. They were very excited. They were very interested.

The main idea of the paragraph is

- A. Insects are important to some people.
- B. The students had a lot of fun.
- C. The students found many insects.
- D. The students were very interested.

3. The students were very interested. They were very happy. They were very excited. They were very interested. They were very happy. They were very excited. They were very interested. They were very happy. They were very excited. They were very interested.

The main idea of the paragraph is

- A. The students were very interested.
- B. The students were very happy.
- C. The students were very excited.
- D. The students were very interested.