Mr. Michael was very pleased with his students.
"This class is amazing and deserves rewards," said Michael. Mr. Michael wanted to take his students to the zoo So Mr. Michael called a company that rents buses to teachers.

The company is sending a bus to pick up the students. The class was excited to see the animals at the zoo. Jane most wanted to see a pack of wolves and a colony of bats. Mr. Michael sang a song for the children. The people on the bus were covering their ears.

The group was ready to get off the bus and see some animals. Britney almost tripped over a flock of geese. The flock scattered to escape Britney and her dangerous feet.

The class ate lunch across from a herd of deer drinking from a stream. The herd noticed the class but kept drinking water. The sounds of those wild animals gave Michael fresh ideas for songs to sing to the class on the bus.
