

Aunt Ann

The cricket said, "I have an aunt,
Her name is Aunt Ann,
If you say she can do something,
I'll tell you she can't."

The spider asked,
"Can she carry a crumb of bread?
And balance a pin point
On top of her head?"

"Yes, actually she can,"
The cricket replied,
"She can even lift my Uncle Ann for a ride."

"But if you tell her if she can do all of that stuff,
She says NO WAY!
And walks away in a huff."

Spider shook his head and said,
"That's very, very strange.
Does she not want to work,
Is she somewhat lazy?"

Cricket thought for a minute
And did a flip,
He gave a quick hop
And rubbed his cricket hip.
