

THE PRESENT CONTINUOUS Future actions exercises

If you want to write or talk about arrangements made for the future you use the PRESENT CONTINUOUS tense.

The PRESENT CONTINUOUS tense
VERB: TO DO	VERB: TO GO	VERB: TO SEE
I'm doing	I'm going	I'm seeing
You're doing	You're going	You're seeing
He/she/it is doing	He/she/it is going	He/she/it is seeing
We are doing	We are going	We are seeing
They are doing	They are going	They are seeing

Examples:

- Next week I'm going to the theatre.
- When are you getting married?
- He is seeing his mother on Tuesday
- She is travelling to York at the weekend.
