

Name: _____

Date: _____

Conjunctions Worksheet (Joining Sentences Part 2)

Conjunctions are words that join two or more words, phrases or clauses. Example Conjunctions; for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so.

Directions: Join the two sentences together using one of the following conjunctions.

for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

Example A: John loves football. John loves basketball.

Answer: John loves football and basketball.

1. I looked beneath my bed. I could not find my shoes.

2. I had fifty dollars. I bought a video game.

3. I read my program. I could not find information on my favorite player.

4. I approved the design. I approved the plan.

5. I could spell all the words. I could not define them.
