

The First President of the United States

George Washington (1732-1799)

I was born on February 22, 1732, in Westfield, Pa. I grew up on my father's farm. When I was fifteen, my father died and I went on my own. I worked for several years for George Hessian. I went to school and became an army officer. When I was twenty, I was sent to fight in the Battle of Brandywine in 1777. The British army defeated me and I was captured. I went to England and stayed at the home of my cousin.

When I was in England, I met a woman named Martha. We became friends. When I came home, I married her. When I was twenty, I went to fight in the Battle of Brandywine. I was captured and sent to England. I stayed in England for a year. I met a woman named Martha. We became friends. When I was twenty, I went to fight in the Battle of Brandywine. I was captured and sent to England. I stayed in England for a year. I met a woman named Martha. We became friends.

When I was in England, I met a woman named Martha. We became friends. When I was twenty, I went to fight in the Battle of Brandywine. I was captured and sent to England. I stayed in England for a year. I met a woman named Martha. We became friends. When I was twenty, I went to fight in the Battle of Brandywine. I was captured and sent to England. I stayed in England for a year. I met a woman named Martha. We became friends.

On September 12, 1788, I was elected the first President of the United States. I was elected for four years. I was re-elected for another four years. I was elected for a third term. I was elected for a fourth term. I was elected for a fifth term.

After I had the great job of a great commander in Philadelphia. My name is George Washington. I was elected the first President of the United States. I was elected for four years. I was re-elected for another four years. I was elected for a third term. I was elected for a fourth term. I was elected for a fifth term.

After my second election to the position of President of the United States in 1792, I was elected for a second term. I was elected for a third term in 1796. I was elected for a fourth term in 1800.