

The First President of the United States

George Washington

I was born on February 22, 1732, in Westchester, N.Y. I grew up on a farm and was educated at King's College. I went to school and worked on a farm. When I was twenty-one, I was elected to the House of Representatives. I served in the House for several years and then became the first President of the United States in 1789. I was born in a small town and grew up on a farm. I had no formal education, but I had a strong sense of duty and a love for my country.

When I was thirteen, I was elected to the House of Representatives. I served in the House for several years and then became the first President of the United States in 1789. I was born in a small town and grew up on a farm. I had no formal education, but I had a strong sense of duty and a love for my country. I was elected to the House of Representatives in 1774 and served until 1775. I then served in the Continental Congress from 1775 to 1781. I was elected to the Presidency in 1789 and served from 1789 to 1797. I was the first President of the United States and served for two terms. I was born in a small town and grew up on a farm. I had no formal education, but I had a strong sense of duty and a love for my country. I was elected to the House of Representatives in 1774 and served until 1775. I then served in the Continental Congress from 1775 to 1781. I was elected to the Presidency in 1789 and served from 1789 to 1797. I was the first President of the United States and served for two terms. I was born in a small town and grew up on a farm. I had no formal education, but I had a strong sense of duty and a love for my country.

On September 1, 1789, I was sworn in as the first President of the United States. I served from 1789 to 1797. I was the first President of the United States and served for two terms. I was born in a small town and grew up on a farm. I had no formal education, but I had a strong sense of duty and a love for my country. I was elected to the House of Representatives in 1774 and served until 1775. I then served in the Continental Congress from 1775 to 1781. I was elected to the Presidency in 1789 and served from 1789 to 1797. I was the first President of the United States and served for two terms. I was born in a small town and grew up on a farm. I had no formal education, but I had a strong sense of duty and a love for my country.