

7th grade American History Test

1. Why were colonists upset with England when Parliament raised colonial taxes?

1. Colonists thought Parliament should raise taxes on all products instead of just luxury goods.
2. Colonists believed England was not respecting their right to be represented in government.
3. Colonists wanted England to provide protection against France if taxes were raised.
4. Colonists did not have enough money to pay taxes to England.

2. Who founded a colony that offered people who had been jailed for debt a way to start a new life?

1. Roger Williams
2. Lord Baltimore
3. James Oglethorpe
4. George Whitefield

3. What is an example of direct protest against British governmental policies during the colonial period?

1. Intolerable Acts
2. Boston Massacre
3. Boston Tea Party
4. Committees of Correspondence

4. Why was the Proclamation of 1763 a source of conflict between the American colonists and Great Britain?

1. Colonists felt that Great Britain was interfering in colonial matters.
2. Colonists did not want Great Britain to allow American Indians in the colonies.
3. Colonists were upset that Great Britain did not reward them for helping to win the war.
4. Colonists were afraid that Great Britain was planning to sell parts of the colonies to the Spanish.

5. How did the Sons of Liberty influence the colonial resistance movement?

1. They petitioned Parliament for colonial rights.
2. They rallied support for colonial resistance against the British.
3. They declared the colonies to be independent from Great Britain.
4. They negotiated agreements between Parliament and the colonists.