

The girl was not injured seriously. Frank suffered scratches only. The park policeman recognized him as a boy he had cautioned several times. Frank was arrested and his bike taken from him for two months.