

In 2050

► Where will you be? How will you be? What will you be?

a. How old will you be?

b. Will you have children? How many? How often? How long will you live?

c. What kind of house will you have? How will it be built? How will it be heated?

d. Where will you live? Will you still live in your hometown or in a new city? Will you live in a house or in an apartment? Will you live in a house or in an apartment?

e. What will you eat? Will you still eat meat? Will you eat more vegetables? Will you eat more fruits? Will you eat more fish?

f. Will you be married? How long will you be married?

g. Will you be rich? How rich? How will you get rich?

► What will the world look like? How will people live and work?

a. What language will people speak? Will there be a common language? Will there be many languages? Will there be no language?

b. How will people travel? Will there be cars? Will there be planes? Will there be spaceships? Will there be teleportation?

c. Will there be money? Will there be gold? Will there be paper? Will there be digital? Will there be no money?

d. What will people look like? Will there be robots? Will there be aliens? Will there be no people?

e. How will children play? Will they play with toys? Will they play with computers? Will they play with robots? Will they play with each other?

f. What will school be like? Will there be schools? Will there be no schools? Will there be online schools? Will there be no schools?

g. What kind of food will there be? Will there be more food? Will there be less food? Will there be no food?

h. Will there be peace? Will there be wars? Will there be no wars? Will there be no peace?

i. What kind of sports will there be? Will there be more sports? Will there be less sports? Will there be no sports?

