

BE GOING TO + INFINITIVE

1) I'm going to go to school to learn medicine.

2) He's going to go to school to learn chemistry.

3) I am going to go to school to learn computer.

We use "to go" to + infinitive to talk about:

- intentions
- planned future arrangements

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs in brackets:

- a) The doctor is taking a _____ (leave) _____.
- b) _____ (they/come) to the party tonight?
- c) Everybody has just left. I _____ (not/see) her work.
- d) We _____ (not/visit) our friends about the year because we don't have enough money.
- e) Look! That plane is on fire! It _____ (crash).
- f) _____ (she/quit) her job as the company secretary?
- g) I _____ (not/buy) new clothes for tonight's party, because my _____ (dress) is a fashion classic.
- h) _____ (she/leave) your new dress?
- i) She's going to open a school. She _____ (teach) the best result in the chemistry test!
- j) We _____ (visit) the new museum tomorrow.

2. Use the following elements to build sentences. Add any necessary words.

- a) going to school/work today
- _____
- b) are/has/have/going to/graduate/ok
- _____
- c) there's a great concert next year?
- _____
- d) don't want to work before
- _____

3. Transform the following sentences as suggested.

- 1) I'm going to visit my mother. (present)
- _____ (past)
- 2) He's going to travel the world. (present)
- _____ (past)
- 3) Are you going to have a job for tonight? (present)
- _____ (past)
- 4) Is your father going to visit you? (present)
- _____ (past)
- 5) He isn't going to buy a new car. (present)
- _____ (past)