

INDIRECT OBJECT PRONOUNS

- IOPs tell _____ of _____ something is intended.
- IOPs go _____ (e.g. quiero regalo para el cumpleaños de María)
- IOPs can be _____: Quiero regalo, regalo de cumpleaños a María.

IOPS

- _____ (to/for me)
- _____ (to/for you informal)
- _____ (to/for them, her, you formal)
- _____ (to/for us)
- _____ (to/for you all informal)
- _____ (to/for them or you all formal)
- * * * or * * * * (replaces to or for when followed by lo, la, los, las)

Circle to whom/for whom the box are intended and write the indirect object pronoun.

- 1) _____ me a regular who suggests a new hairdresser.
- 2) My a regular _____ who suggests a new hairdresser.
- 3) Juan _____ us a regular who suggests a car.
- 4) Juan us a regular _____ who suggests a restaurant.
- 5) Juan _____ us a regular who suggests a restaurant.
- 6) Juan us a regular _____ who suggests a car.

When 2 verbs are working together, you can use IOPs before a conjugated verb or after an infinitive.

- I want to buy him a card.
 - Quiero comprar _____ una tarjeta.
 - _____, quiero comprar una tarjeta.
- I want to buy her a plant.
 - _____
 - _____