GOD'S AUTHORSHIP What was God doing in these situations? How did He use them in your life?	It seemed like we were always moving so I never had any friends. I looked for ways to be accepted. I loved school, was the teacher's pet because I tried to do everything right. God was letting me experience the instability so that later I could appreciate stability in Him, not in anything else.	Dad's drinking, arguments with Mom and divorce were very painful. My Uncle Bill and Aunt Charlotte showed real love to us. God used this to show me what love can be like. Going to church for the first time, I began to hear about God's love and had an example to understand it. I saw the consequences of my dad's bad choice.	Through church ministry I accept Christ and find a sense of stability in His love and faithfulness. Young Life helps me grow. Time turns out to be another example of God's love to me. God's blessing allows me to stop working and enjoy school. I joined the track team and brought some guys to Young Life, one later accepted Christ.	Janet is God's gift to me. I almost "blow it" because I am too into getting max grades. I still struggle with getting my significance through my performance rather than from Christ. I am growing in this, but it shows up too often. God is so faithful to give me Janet. We grow together. I am asking God to help me be a stable, growing husband, and some day, father.
