

Marine Math

Draw pictures in the space provided to show these math problems. Then color and count them and write your answer.

1. Six clown fish are swimming in the coral reef. Each clown fish has two white stripes. How many white stripes do you see?

white stripes

2. Each starfish has five arms it uses to crawl along the rocky shore. Five starfish are searching for clams. How many arms can you find?

arms

3. Three octopuses are hiding among the rocks. Every one of the "octos" has eight arms. How many octopus arms are there?

octopus arms

4. The inky squids each have ten tentacles. Two squids float past you while you swim. How many tentacles float past?

tentacles

5. The crab has two bulging eyes to see its prey. Four crabs scuttle sideways along the colored reef. How many eyes are looking about?

eyes
