

English Exercise – 8 points

Teacher's initials:

Student:

1) What is bullying?

Bullying is when someone keeps doing or saying things to someone else over and over again.

Some of the ways they bully other people are by saying mean things, saying something mean about them, taking them out of school, taking to them, threatening them, making them feel uncomfortable, teased, taking or damaging their things, hitting or kicking them, or making them do things they don't want to do.

Some say if these things happened to your friend, that's not of these things to consider bullying. Bullying is when someone does these things to someone else over and over again.

2) Why do some people bully?

There are a lot of reasons why someone bullies.

They feel sad or it is not all happy and fun, or they want to be like someone else.

Some people do it to get attention or to be like someone else. Some people do it because they are jealous of the person they are bullying. They may be jealous of their own things.

Some people do it because they want to be like someone else. Some people do it because they want to be like someone else.

3) Why are some young people bullied?

Some young people are bullied because they are different from others. Some are different because of their looks, their hair, or their clothes. Some are bullied because they are different from others.

4) Why is bullying harmful?

Some people think bullying is just part of growing up. For young people, it can be a bad experience. It can make them feel sad and angry.

Some young people feel sad, angry, and frightened. It makes them feel lonely and alone. Some may not be something wrong with them. They may feel sad and angry and want to go to school every day. It may make them sad.

5) What can you do if you are being bullied?

Some people tell you to tell someone, but sometimes you can't tell anyone. Sometimes it is better to tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust.

Some people tell you to tell someone, but sometimes you can't tell anyone. Sometimes it is better to tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust.

Some people tell you to tell someone, but sometimes you can't tell anyone. Sometimes it is better to tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust. Sometimes you can tell someone you trust.

6) What can you do if you see someone else being bullied?

If you see someone else being bullied, you should try to help. If you see someone else being bullied, you should try to help. If you see someone else being bullied, you should try to help.

7) How do you bully?

Some people think bullying is just part of growing up. For young people, it can be a bad experience. It can make them feel sad and angry. It can make them feel sad and angry. It can make them feel sad and angry.