

THE BARBER

4. FILL IN THE TEXT IN THE CORRECT FORM.

Mr. Lloyd _____ (to go) to the barber every month to have a haircut.
He sometimes _____ (to take) his small son Philip with him, and Philip _____ (to sit) and _____ (to look) at magazines during his father's haircut.
But at that time, the barber _____ (not to cut) Philip's hair.
Mrs. Lloyd always _____ (to cut) it at home.
Then, one day, Mr. Lloyd _____ (to say) to his wife, "Philip's five now, and the barber is going to cut his hair next time."
He _____ (to take) Philip there the next day, and first the barber _____ (to cut) Mr. Lloyd's hair.
Then he _____ (to put) Philip in the chair and _____ (to say), "How do you want your hair, young man?"
"Like my father's," _____ (to answer) Philip. "With a hole in the middle."