

States of Matter

Directions: Draw the particles to show how the molecules are in each state. Then, under each picture, write which state of matter it is and describe each state.

