Reading Response Journal Entry

A graphic of a spiral-bound notebook with a black cover and a white page. The spiral binding is on the left side. The page contains seven numbered questions for a reading response journal entry, each followed by a set of three horizontal lines for writing.

1. What did you read about today? Be as specific as possible.

2. How did you feel about what you read today? Why?

3. Think about your favorite character. What happened to him/her today?

4. How would you feel if the same thing that happened to him/her, happened to you?

5. What questions do you have about what you read today?

7. What do you predict will happen next in this story (or later in the story)?
