

SIGHT

THE EYE

The light enters the eye through the pupil, then passes through the retina and the information is sent to the BRAIN. The BRAIN tells you what you see.

The sense of sight lets us see colours, shapes, sizes and distances. Eyes are the organs for SIGHT.

The _____ is in the centre of the iris.

The _____ is the coloured part of the eye.

The _____ prevent things enter the eye.