Part Two Instructions: Underline the prepositional phrases and infinitives in the story. Write the letter P over the prepositional phrases and the letter I over the infinitives.

PART ONE

_____ was on a mission, a mission to slay zombies.
It had been three months since _____ was infected with the zombie virus. The young slayer wanted to protect the town, the school, and the world from the disgusting creatures. _____ practiced zombie killing techniques during the days and nights in an abandoned barn close to the middle school.

Throughout the zombie invasion, the slayer had studied the methods of the school archery club. _____ determined the best way to take out zombies was by bow and arrow. This allowed the slayer to slay from afar. _____ had already seen what could happen if a person got close to a zombie and didn't want to repeat the mistakes of others.

PART TWO

The zombies had to eat brains to survive. _____ preferred to munch on Taco Bell. Loud gurgling sounds came from the slayer's stomach, a signal that it was time to venture out of the barn to eat. The time had come to _____ the hoodies.

The slayer arrived at Taco Bell, bow and arrow in hand. _____ was shocked to see one of the walking dead in the restaurant's kitchen. The zombie had a quesadilla in each one of its rotting hands. The zombie bent his hand toward the quesadilla to take a bite, but never got the chance. One of the slayer's arrows pierced into the quesadilla and went through the zombie's open mouth, killing it instantly.

_____ never wanted to eat Taco Bell after that day, but the slayer would always have an appetite for destruction.
