

Name _____ Date _____

SARCASM SENTENCE

Sarcasm is the use of irony, when someone says the opposite of what they really mean. Identify the sarcasm in each sentence.

1. Your mom serves leftover lasagna that has been sitting in the fridge all week for dinner. You say, "Nothing like homemade food fresh out of the oven."
2. I'm so happy the teacher gave us all this homework on a Friday."
3. Your room is covered in dirty laundry and dirty dishes from all the snacks you grab from the kitchen. When your mom walks in she says, "Wow! This room is fit for the queen."
4. "I love the ketchup stains on your pants. They make you look extra stylish."
5. Your sister forgets to look at her homework until late Sunday night. She realizes she has two big assignments due on Monday morning. She says, "I guess I'll be sleeping well tonight."
6. "I'm so glad my dog barked all night. I slept really well."
7. You miss the bus on the day of your big presentation. You say, "Great! That was just what I needed today!"
8. Your mother let your three year old brother bake a cake in the kitchen and he makes a giant mess. You say, "Well that was a surprise."
9. Your family had to wake up at 4 o'clock in the morning in order to catch a plane. Your older brother says, "I love waking up before the sun."
10. Your friend knocks over all of the supplies for the experiment in science class onto the floor. You say, "Nice work!"