

Name _____

Types of Sentences

Identify declarative, imperative, interrogative, and exclamatory sentences.

Read each sentence carefully. Put the correct punctuation in the box. Write the type of sentence on the line.

Declarative – a statement, ends in a period	I like ice cream.
Imperative – a command, usually ends in a period	Go to your room.
Interrogative – a question, ends in a question mark	What is your name?
Exclamatory – an exclamation, ends in an exclamation mark	I'm so scared!

- |                                      |                      |       |
|--------------------------------------|----------------------|-------|
| 1. Where are you going after school  | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 2. Ouch, that hurt so badly          | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 3. I went to the park to play soccer | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 4. She is a very good singer         | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 5. Get your homework out             | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 6. Stop                              | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 7. Can I go outside to play          | <input type="text"/> | _____ |
| 8. Please bring me that book         | <input type="text"/> | _____ |