

Present Simple Tense - My Friend Sally

to be, to win, to have, to do, to need, to lose, to feel, to know, to like, to live, to say, to teach, to hate, to wear, to hope, to want, to help, to agree, to love, to play, to train, to study, to go, to enjoy, to think,
to make

Write the correct forms of the verbs above in the spaces below.

My friend Sally _____ in Singapore. She _____ 15 and she _____ in year 10 like me. Her birthday _____ in October so her star sign _____ Libra. Sally _____ with her parents, siblings and grandmother. She _____ an older brother and two younger sisters. Her brother _____ in year 11. He _____ very interested in music and _____ with a school band. Her younger sisters _____ twins. They _____ still in primary school.

Sally _____ badminton and _____ in the school team. They _____ a green and gold uniform with white shoes. Sally _____ the uniform but she _____ the shoes because she _____ to clean them after every game. They _____ to Malaysia and Indonesia twice a year to compete against other schools. They sometimes _____ but they usually _____, especially against the Indonesian teams. Her father _____ that losing _____ us valuable lessons about life and Sally _____ with him. However she and her netball friends _____ winning of course, so they _____ hard every week. They _____ to win half of their games this year.

Sally's parents _____ teachers at her school. She _____ this is both good and bad. They _____ sure she _____ her homework and _____ hard. They _____ her sometimes if _____ a problem with her work. However, she _____ a lot of pressure to be a perfect student because everyone _____ her parents. Sometimes she _____ to move to a different school but she _____ this would not be a good idea in year 10.