

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

Published by John Cole, Baltimore

Violin I

by our God, the Great First Cause,
Whose arm is bent above the world,
Who sits enthroned upon the clouds,
And sends His lightning from the sky,
To strike the proud and haughty king,
Who sits upon his throne of state,
And says, I will be God forever,
And will be worshipped as such.

This copy of the Star-Spangled Banner was published around 1830. American Publisher, John Cole, was the first to include a picture on the title pages of his sheet music.
