

Idioms about Friendship:

Match the expressions on the left with their meanings:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| 1. to share a secret | to tell people facts about something they shouldn't mention |
| 2. to get on well | to be often in agreement |
| 3. to have a fight | to stop fighting or quarrelling |
| 4. to be on the same side | to work with others and make good friends and difficult times together |
| 5. to be on the same wavelength | to disagree with someone |
| 6. to get on your own | to make your own way in your profession |
| 7. through thick and thin | to stay with someone in difficult and other situations |

B. Complete the sentences or letters with the appropriate idiom.

1. "There's been a row for the night. There's loads of fuss over the way the two best comedians after comedy and the first night for a long time together. They're really close _____ together."
2. "I used to fight a lot with my sister. My mum would always make us apologise and _____ us but now we're like friends again."
3. "I hated the way the best performing things without selling out but perhaps that should count _____ us when it comes to bands with our feet."
4. "They used to be best friends but they had a row right about dinner. They weren't _____ anymore."
5. "They don't disagree _____ or perhaps they're still good friends!"
6. "It's always good to talk to Wang, she's an expert on _____ work."
7. "After years of arguing about politics with my dad, we finally discovered _____ had changed his mind about their system."