

Canadian National Parks

You have completed your self-check and require additional work on Canadian National Parks or you desire the written test provided for you may choose additional Parks.
<http://www.gov.gc.ca/english/pe/peindex.html> (copy/paste)

1. Can you name three (3) National Parks with the following facts in your mind:
Identifying the location of Canada's oldest National Park of world-class scientific and historical significance.
2. How many the Province that protect it?
3. What ecological zone identifying and describing a province of 2000 with the following features: Heritage, Wildlife, Natural Heritage, Cultural Heritage.
4. Identify and explain three different conflicts associated with National Parks in the field of your study, Government and with the National Park Act (your research).
5. Include a statement of importance identifying key features of your National Park. Paragraphs will include the landscape, geology, flora and fauna. Be sure to include a brief explanation of the purpose you appreciate.
6. Identify one species at risk from National Parks representing the field you are researching. Be sure to explain what strategy is a species at risk, the level of risk and outline a conservation strategy to ensure the species is safe.

Topic: <http://www.gov.gc.ca/english/pe/peindex.html>

All completed with care by www.gov.gc.ca