David and Goliath

Two armies were drawn up in battle array. They were the armies of the Israelites and _____. For _____ days these armies had been facing each other, but yet the battle had been delayed. The Philistines had on their side a _____ of great height and strength, encased in armour, who daily came out, challenging the Israelites to send a man from their camp to fight with him. But no man among them dared to go against _____, the Philistines' champion.

Meanwhile Jesse had sent _____ to the Israelites' camp to see his brothers. He heard what the giant said, and offered to go out against him. _____ was informed of David's offer, and sent for him. Saul told David he was not able to fight the giant, but he boldly replied, "The Lord which _____ me out of the paw of the _____ and out of the paw of the bear. He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine." David trusted not in his own _____, but in God! Then Saul said, "Go, and the Lord be with you."

He went, slung one of the smooth _____ he had chosen out of the brook, struck the Philistine in the forehead so that he fell to the earth, and then ran and cut off his _____. So God enabled David to overcome the giant Philistine, and to slay him with a _____ and a stone.
