

Drawing Conclusions Worksheet

Read each paragraph and select the best answer.

He had always wanted to serve in country, but his career like machine. He was supposed to fight a war in a foreign land, helping to protect people whom he didn't even know. Michael had a strong sense of patriotism, but he was worried about the bombs, death, and damage that would result from a long. He wondered whether he would ever see his family again.

1. What does this paragraph tell about.....

2. What conclusions can you draw about how Michael is feeling about going to war?

- a) He enjoys joining the military.
- b) He is afraid of going over board.
- c) He is feeling nervous at the thought of being in the military.
- d) He feels proud of his country.

The detective had planned to pull all of the suspects into a room. He had already questioned each of them thoroughly and it was something Mr. Minsky had said that really made him think. Minsky had mentioned how terrible it was that Mr. Minkowski had been killed with a knife while the information on the murder suspect was never public. When the detective questioned him on how he knew about the murder suspect he said he had just assumed that was the case. Now with all the possible suspects in the room, detective Williams was ready to make an arrest.

3. What most likely killed Mr. Minkowski?

4. What conclusions can you draw about Mr. Minsky's feelings?

- a) He thinks he had gotten away with the crime.
- b) He is ready to run and try and get away.
- c) He thinks the detective Williams will probably arrest him.
- d) He thinks Mr. Minkowski could have committed the crime.

Video gaming is one of the biggest industries in America. Each day more and more children are getting addicted to video games. There have been many video game oppositions concerning the industry of becoming too violent. It is not uncommon to play a shoot 'em up game where our people are getting killed every second. The biggest concern parents or educators versus video games, is that the parents think games are getting hooked.

5. What is the general age group of people who are getting hooked on gaming?

6. What conclusions can you draw about the video game industry?

- a) as time goes on, parents or make games less violent will decrease the number of shooting games.
- b) as time goes on more games will get out that children from playing violent video games.
- c) as time goes on the video game industry will lose money.
- d) as time goes on more and more children will play video games.