

Hermit Crab's shell is so small,
he moves out.

Hermit Crab finds a big strong new shell.

Just as he finds a beautiful new home.

Second, he found a flock of starfish.

Third, the Hermit Crab found some great pieces of coral.

Just as he and the Hermit Crab found a small pool.

Hermit Crab gratefully picked up a sea urchin. He carefully places it nearby.

Then Hermit Crab and his friends came to a forest of seaweed. It was very dark and moody. "No like nighttime!" said the sea urchin.

Lanternfish helped them get through the dark forest of seaweed.

After getting out of the seaweed forest, Hermit Crab found some nice pebbles to build around his shell.

Hermit Crab's shell is getting small again. But he loves his new friends. That are his family.

Hermit Crab gives his shell to the little hermit crab and gets a big,
new shell.
