

Newspaper Title

Shocking Story Title

This is where you will write about a real event that happened in colonial days. This should be a story that would be shocking or surprising to the readers. Explain all of the details and events in order. Make sure readers know why this is such a shocking story.

Someone You Should Know

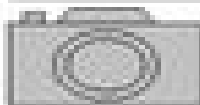

In this section, you will write about one of the important people in colonial days. You must tell who they are, why they are important, and other facts about their life.

What's New and Exciting

In this section, you will explain at least 3 new things that the colonists have to get used to or 3 new things that they have done. Explain how these new things are affecting their lives and how they are a part of their lives.

Classified Section

In this section you will advertise something that you are trying to sell. Think about what people would be willing to pay for in colonial times. Make sure to write a description of the item, tell why they need it, and give the price of the item.

You need a picture of your item to the left. You will use this space to write your notes to tell what it is.

Your Name _____