

KANJI PRACTICE SHEET

This image shows a blank Kanji practice sheet. At the top, there is a title box containing the text "KANJI PRACTICE SHEET". Below the title is a large grid of 20 columns and 20 rows of yellow squares. Each square in the grid contains a dashed yellow line, forming a smaller square inside the larger one, which is designed to help with the stroke order and placement of kanji characters.