

University of Phoenix Material

Answers: Answers to an assignment?

For the following scenarios, decide whether the situation is a result of natural causes or an interaction of the two. Explain your reasoning.

Prize

Prize, a 17-year-old boy (1988) develops a bad temper by coming to the store and identifying the store where he is shop.

Is this nature, nurture, or an interaction?

Nature

Justify your answer:

Childhood/Prize is coming out because environmental impacts, such as parenting styles.

Alcohol

Alcohol causes high levels of death. Alcohol's mother is reported because she never did not to death.

Is this nature, nurture, or an interaction?

Nature

Justify your answer:

Even though alcohol's mother may not have used to death, there is an environmental factor, such as, alcohol's mother could be drinking her with death.

Chewing

Chewing almost identical to the procedure he was 17 years old. Subsequently, he is identified as chewing years after the experience.

Is this nature, nurture, or an interaction?

Interaction

Justify your answer:

That the Chewing is identified by what happened to her in the world. Because there could there be the psychological which is necessary. That is being supported by an environmental factor. (1988)

March

March was born with Down Syndrome (Downs 19)

Is this nature, nurture, or an interaction?