

One spring morning a mother duck was pleased that her eggs had begun to open. Her mother duck was very sad of her ducklings. One of them looked different from the others. She said, "He's so big and ugly!" All the others didn't want to play with him. He was very sad. One day he packed his bags and left home to look for someone to be his friend. When the next spring came, he went to the river. He looked at his reflection in the lake and said, "I've met an ugly duckling any more!" he said. He became a white swan.

Read and Tick (Yes/No) . . .

- 1- Mother duck was very happy of her ducklings. ()
- 2- One of her ducklings looked different. ()
- 3- The others didn't want to play with him. ()
- 4- He left home to look for someone to be his mother. ()
- 5- At the end, he is black swan. ()