

A grid of ten cartoon children, each holding a sign with a simple addition problem. The children are arranged in two rows of five. The first row contains a girl with pigtails, a boy with glasses, a girl with pigtails, a boy with glasses, and a girl with pigtails. The second row contains a girl with pigtails, a girl with pigtails, a boy with glasses, a girl with pigtails, and a girl with pigtails. Each sign shows the number 3 plus a number from 0 to 9, with a horizontal line below the plus sign for the answer.
