

Name _____

Activity 10: Comparison

Date _____

Now We're Spittin'

Read the poems.

Precious Girl A Poem for the Future
Voice One Grandpa's girl— Will soon be mine. Roll-down windows, no AC. No GPS, no WiFi. Faded seats and leather seats. My Grandd's car can drive across sea. My grandpa's girl will learn to do.	Voice Two My car girl— I bought her back to stay—mine. There was no roller ride for me. We built it every kind of (D)O. I always look for mine and love. She'll never have a sprained toe. And I'm proud to give her to you!

Finally!

Washed dogs, rolled leaves, sat/ran,
 Did the dishes, fed the cat,
 Saved my pennies, added more—
 Now the dog has really come!
 The owner's gone to get the dog
 Hope I can drive with wobbly knees!

Answer the questions.

1. Who are Voice One and Voice Two in the poem "Precious Girl"? _____
2. What is "grandpa's girl"? How do you know? _____
3. What is happening in the poem "Precious Girl"? _____
4. Who is speaking in the poem "Finally"? _____
5. Do you think "Finally" is a good title for the poem? Why or why not? _____
6. Which poem do you like better? Why? _____

Bonus: Draw a Venn diagram and use it to compare the poems.