

The Human Body Organ Systems

Directions: Use the words from the word box below to correctly name each of the parts of the human body organ systems.

Integumentary	Muscular	Skeletal	Circulatory
Respiratory	Urinary	Nervous	Reproductive (male)
Nervous	Lymphatic	Digestive	Reproductive (female)

1. _____ System that pumps blood throughout your body using the heart.
2. _____ System that moves materials from the blood and regulates the "body" fluids.
3. _____ Absorbs oxygen and releases carbon dioxide from the body.
4. _____ Consists of skin, hair, and nails for protection.
5. _____ Produces and delivers oxygen.
6. _____ Breaks down food into nutrients for absorption by the body.
7. _____ A system that moves your bones.
8. _____ This system sends out chemical messages to regulate body functions (the organs are in this system).
9. _____ Helps you get rid of harmful germs and removes leaked fluids to blood vessels.
10. _____ Produces eggs and maintains and shelters a developing unborn baby.
11. _____ Provides a frame to support and protect body parts.
12. _____ Receives and sends electric messages throughout the body.