

UNIT TIME: 2 Weeks T & E GOALS: A, F & O	COURSE: EXPLORATIONS DRAMA 8 UNIT: 1 – An Introduction to Drama – Theatre Games CORE CONTENTS STANDARDS: WORKPLACE READINESS STANDARDS:		REVISED: 2004/05 SY LK PAGE: 1 MASTERY GOAL: 95% of the students will master 95% of the concepts.
INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES TLWDAT	ACTIVITIES/ASSIGNMENT	ENRICHMENT/REMEDIAL ACTIVITIES	RESOURCES
Exhibit ease and confidence before a group through the use of specific theatre games involving voice, movement and peer interaction. 1.3C(1)	Keep a daily journal of activities. Daily warm-up exercises and stretches. Pantomiming imaginary objects. Specific theatre games, activities, IE: mime, children's circle games, physical warm-ups, etc.	Written observation of people using objects. Use of objects using mime technique. Pantomiming an activity using imaginary objects. FORMATIVE EVALUATION Journals Daily participation Written explanation of activities	Theatre Games for the Classroom, Viola Spolin Creative Communications: Projects in Acting, Speaking and Oral Reading Teacher generated activities Guesstures game SUMMATIVE EVALUATION Pantomiming of objects as quiz Written explanations Test on techniques through performance