

A black and white cartoon illustration of a penguin standing on a small patch of ground. The penguin has a large, long beak and is looking upwards with a thoughtful expression. Above its head is a large, cloud-like thought bubble. Inside the thought bubble, there is a block of text. Three small circles lead from the penguin's head to the bottom of the thought bubble. The signature 'GLASSBORO' is written in a simple, hand-drawn style to the left of the penguin's feet.

PENGUINS ARE BLACK AND WHITE.
SOME OLD TV SHOWS ARE BLACK AND WHITE.
THEREFORE, SOME PENGUINS ARE OLD TV SHOWS.

Logic: another thing that penguins aren't very good at.
