

Linking Verbs

A linking verb tells what the subject is by linking the subject to a noun or adjective in the predicate part of the sentence.

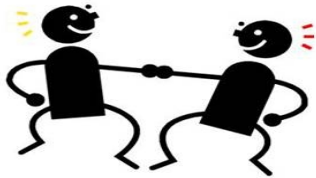

Forms of be:

- am
- is
- are
- was
- Were

Making Subjects & Linking Verbs Agree:

	present-tense	past-tense
Singular Subject	is	was
Plural Subject	are	were
I	am	was

A helping verb helps the main verb. It always comes before the verb.

Helping Verbs:

am	was	have	does	would
is	were	has	do	could
are	will	had	did	should

Making Subjects & Helping Verbs Agree:

	present-tense	past-tense
Singular Subject	has, is, does	had, was, did
Plural Subject	have, are, do	had, were, did
I	have, am, do	had, was, did