Tick the boxes that describe you. Then find out what sort of learner you are

When the adverts are on TV, I go and do something else.
I enjoy listening to stories.
I am good at trying out new skills.
I learn best when teachers get us to do something.
I usually get into trouble for talking in class.
I would like a job where I fix things.
I remember things during lessons when there are pictures or diagrams to look at.
I gesticulate with my hands when I'm talking. I would choose to go outside and play.
I like to look out of the classroom window.
I often whistle, hum or sing to myself.
