The Titanic

The Titanic was built in Belfast during 1911. It sailed from Queenstown on 11 April 1912. On 14 April 1912, the ship collided with an iceberg and sank, with the loss of over 1000 lives.

Titanic was considered unsinkable and the largest, the fastest and the most luxurious ship in the world.

Many of those third class immigrants travelling to the United States were from Ireland and Scandinavia. They hoped a better life in America. In the list of passengers there were about 900 emigrants.
