

How to Have Good manners

Good manners are the first mark of good breeding and reflect directly on a person's upbringing.

Let's learn and act!

Scene 1. The 2 students are meeting one afternoon. On their way to school, they meet their English teacher. What are they going to say?

Student: Good afternoon, teacher.

Teacher: Good afternoon. How are you?

Student: I'm good.

Teacher: Oh, nice to hear that. I have to go. See you later! Bye!

Student: Goodbye!

Scene 2. It's time for David and Alex to leave to say goodbye to their car and say goodbye.

David: Good night my dear.

Alex: Goodnight, Alex.

Goodnight, David.

David: Sleep well, ok.

Alex: I will.

Scene 3. There was an old woman crossing the street.

The girl came and offer some help.

Girl: Excuse me, would you like me to help you?

Old woman: Oh, thank you. You are so kind. Oh, it's really kind for you to come for me.

Girl: You're welcome. It's my pleasure.

Scene 4. The girl was walking. Suddenly, a boy bumped on her shoulder.

She fell on the floor. She's very angry.

Girl: Excuse what are you doing?

Boy: Oh, I'm so sorry.

Girl: Sorry? What do you think you're doing? Look at me!

Boy: Oh, I'll help you. I'm sorry again.

Scene 5. The student came to school later!

Student: Excuse me, teacher. I'm sorry I'm late. Can I come in?

Teacher: Yes, but, why are you late?

Student: Traffic.

Teacher: Good, you need to get up early next time. OK? Come in.

Student: Oh, thank you so much.

Teacher: Welcome.
