

CONTENTS

		Words Used	4,5
NO.	TITLE	SYNOPSIS	PAGE
11	The Great White Wash	Aunt Polly caught Tom playing hookey and made him white wash the fence. Tom made it look as if he liked to paint the fence, and all the boys traded things to him to get to paint, too.	6
12	Tom Gets a Bible	It was not that Tom really wanted a Bible, but he did want to stand up in front of everyone at Sunday School. You had to learn 2000 verses to get a Bible. Tom could never do that, but he got the Bible anyway — by trading for the tickets.	12
13	Tom Wins Becky's Love	On the way to school, Tom planned to go with Huckleberry Finn to the graveyard at midnight. Being late to school got Tom placed on the girl's side, next to Becky Thatcher, the new girl. He told her he loved her. At noon, alone in the school house, they got engaged.	18
14	A Killing in the Graveyard	Tom and Huck saw Injun Joe kill Dr. Robinson and put the knife into Muff Potter's hand, who had been knocked out from a hit on the head. Tom and Huck made a pact never to tell.	24
15	Tom, Joe, and Huck Become Pirates	Turned down by Becky, Tom went to an island to be a pirate with Huck and Joe. Everyone thought they had been drowned. At night Tom stole back home to leave a note that they were safe. But he changed his mind after he heard the plans for their funeral.	30
16	Their Funeral and Life as Heroes	At their own funeral, the three boys listened and then appeared amidst all the crying. Aunt Polly learned of Tom's trip and found the note on bark in his pocket. Being a hero made him "stuck up" toward Becky, but then he took a whipping for her.	36
17	Tom Saves Muff Potter	Tom and Huck worried about Muff Potter being hanged for the killing he didn't do. Finally, Tom told the true story at the trial. Injun Joe jumped out the window and was gone.	42
18	Buried Treasure in the Haunted House	Tom and Huck were upstairs in the old haunted house when Injun Joe and a stranger came in. They watched as the men started to bury their money, and found a wooden box of old coins. Injun Joe took all the money and left without finding the boys.	48
19	A Picnic of Adventure	As Huck followed Injun Joe and the stranger, he learned they were on their way to cut up Widow Douglas. Huck got help. Injun Joe got away. On the picnic, Becky and Tom got lost in the cave. Tom saw Injun Joe inside. Tom found a new way out and saved his and Becky's lives.	54
20	Heroes and Friends — To the End	Mr. Thatcher had the cave closed up. Later, they found Injun Joe's dead body. Tom and Huck went back into the cave to find Injun Joe's treasure of $12,000 in old gold pieces.	60
		Comprehension Check Answer Key	67
		Vocabulary Check Answer Key	69