

Name _____
Reading – Miss Taylor

Date _____
Many minds, One mission 2021

Bud, Not Buddy Final Test

Multiple Choice: _____ / 14

Directions: Answer the following multiple choice questions. Remember to read all of the answer choices before choosing your answer.

- How did Bud get the idea that Herman E. Calloway might be his father?
 - Hismother told him.
 - Aud teasing him led him, a ticket he didn't know who his father was. In desperation, Bud blurted out it was Herman E. Calloway before he really thought.
 - The librarian suggested Bud should try to find Herman E. Calloway, so Bud assumed she must have known because a relative.
 - He could see the family resemblance in the picture.
- The conflict in this novel is basically between—
 - Bud and the outside world
 - the jazz band and its competitors
 - Herman Calloway and his daughter
 - Bud and his mother
- The character of Herman Calloway is best described as all of the following except—
 - shrewd
 - proud
 - kind
 - ambitious
- At the story's end, Bud discovers—
 - his mother
 - a friendly orphanage
 - his grandfather
 - his name
- The character of Bud is best described as all of the following except—
 - mean
 - unwilling
 - loyal
 - kind
- Bud's motivation for going to Grand Rapids is to—
 - find his mother
 - find a job
 - look for the librarian
 - look for his father
- Supense in this story is created chiefly by our anxiety about—
 - what Luffy Lewis will do
 - what Bud will find in Grand Rapids
 - the fate of Bud's mother
 - the police arresting Bud
- Why doesn't Bud want anyone calling him "Buddy"?
 - Buddy is a dog's name
 - Buddy is his name when someone is being pretend friendly
 - Bud's mom insisted he be called Bud
 - all of the above
- Who technically owned "The Log Cabin"?
 - Georgy LaStone
 - Mr. Calloway
 - Diny Deeds
 - Mr. Jimmy